Technical University of Munich (TUM) Asia

SUMMER SCHOOL 2019

28 July - 7 August 2019
TECHNICAL UNIVERSITY OF MUNICH

Founded in 1868, Technical University of Munich (TUM) is ranked as Germany’s #1 University*. TUM acts as an entrepreneurial university that promotes talents and creates value for society.

Following the same vision, TUM Asia was set up in 2002 to bring German academic excellence to Asia. Students at TUM Asia have the opportunity to combine German engineering with Asian relevance in the thriving economic landscape of Singapore. TUM Asia offers Bachelor and Master degrees by TUM, in partnership with top universities in Singapore. With a TUM degree, graduates are able to secure reputable offers from companies anywhere in the world.

TUM ASIA SUMMER SCHOOL 2019

Experience an unforgettable time in Singapore during your school break this Summer! The TUM Asia Summer School is designed to be an experiential and enriching program for international students, embracing a mix of academic topics alongside the rich cultural background of Singapore, while tasting a little of TUM Asia’s German heritage roots!

TESTIMONIALS (Summer School 2018 Participants)

“Though the classes were not directly related to my university major, I can safely say that they were some of the best classes I have ever attended.”
Rongxuan Ye, China

“The classes were so interesting that I did not doze off during any sessions in the Summer School!”
Vijay R, India

“I used to be afraid of speaking English, but after 10 days in Singapore, I have become more confident to converse in English.”
Burencaodao, China
